

DAILY NEWS

SUNDAY, JANUARY 11, 1880.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

THEY are contemplating a telegraph line between Boykins and Murfreesboro. We would suggest that a telephone line is much preferable. It requires no educated operator, for any man who can talk and hear is a ready-made telephone operator. The telephone is superseding the telegraph on all short lines North and will, it is thought, eventually supersede the telegraph entirely except on the ocean cables. As the News has heretofore suggested, telephone lines to the railroad from such places as Murfreesboro, Jackson, Oxford, Clontarf, Clinton and the like, could be operated without expense and would be a great public benefit.

THE PREJUDICE OF JURIES AGAINST RAILROADS.

The prejudice of juries against corporations and the difficulty with which the latter can obtain what is their due, even when justice is on their side, is often commented upon—sometimes as a mark of the degeneracy of the community in which it occurs, and sometimes as an argument against the jury system altogether. But that this prejudice is often increased by the corporations themselves is shown by a recent case in Wisconsin, decided by the Supreme court of that State a few weeks ago. The suit arose out of a railroad collision. Of the two persons on the engine at the time, one, the fireman, jumped off at the first sight of danger, while the other, the engineer, stood by his post, where after the crash came and the debris had been cleared, he was found with the lever in one hand and the throttle in the other, crushed, scalded, burned, dead. For such a noble deed the company might have been expected to provide for the family of the dead hero, who certainly deserved such a reward as much as any soldier who ever fell in his country's cause. But instead of this the widow was forced to bring suit for the loss of her husband's support, and the company, defending on the ground that the engineer was negligent in not abandoning his post when he might, prevailed in the court below.

Happily the Supreme Court reversed the case. "The evidence," they say, "presents an example of heroic bravery and fidelity to duty at the post of danger most praiseworthy and commendable and an occurrence worthy of lasting record in the book of heroic deeds." "Who," they ask, "shall sit in judgment upon this brave engineer to determine the alternative risks and chances which he is compelled to take instantly, with scarcely a moment of time for deliberation in such a terrible emergency. It will not do to establish a rule by which the duty of an engineer in such an emergency may be measured and dictated by cowardice and timidity, and by which his standing at his post and facing danger will be careless and negligence. The defense resting upon such a theory in this case can not be sanctioned." This is Jim Bludsoe, who held the bow of the burning steamer against the bank till the last one stepped ashore—the "man who died for men"—whose praises have been sung by one of our own poets, not placed among the world's heroes, but charged forsooth with "contributory negligence." Litigant corporations will do well if they are able to keep from the view of the average juror the miserable picture which this defense presents.

IMMIGRATION.

One of the most potent instrumentalities which have impeded the progress of immigration into this State is the false representations of corrupt politicians as to the conduct of our people toward those who come among us from other States, seeking homes. As to the treatment Northern people receive at our hands we introduce the testimony of Mr. A. R. Broden, a prominent miner of Union county in this State, and an emigrant from Maine. Mr. Broden says: "I have lived in North Carolina since the war, and I would not give its climate and soil for any other State in the Union. The newspapers may blaze and blow about the people, but I ask no better treatment from any people than I have received at the hands of North Carolinians."

I do hope that the day is not far distant when all strife between the two sections will be no more, and when they know each other there will be the end. These are truthful, manly and patriotic utterances.

Another emigrant from the North, Mr. John Hinman, a well-to-do farmer of this State, very pertinently remarks: "The persistent efforts of some politicians and papers to keep the 'bloody shirt' constantly before the Northern people, not only does the South a great wrong, but injures, in more ways than one, those of us who have made our homes among the Southern people."

And another, Mr. H. G. Whiting, an emigrant from Massachusetts, thus speaks of our section and people: "I am a true son of the North, but I have decided that this section of the country is the best for me to gain an independence; and I have taken active interest in the affairs of this, my future home, and have been met open-handed and substantially encouraged."

And many more such cases might be adduced to show how cheerfully false the malicious statements promulgated by unprincipled men for political purposes, regarding the disposition of our people toward emigrants from other States.

As to the advantages possessed by our State for immigrants, we also appeal to the unvarnished testimony of Northern gentlemen among us who have identified themselves with our interests. Mr. R. Y. Russell, formerly of Lynn, Mass., and now of Asheville, N. C., thus expresses himself: "The diversified interests to which this region is adapted, and its nearness to markets, renders it a superior State for immigrants, and must eventually become a coveted spot for capitalists and people seeking rural homes. At present, so far as I can learn, there is no place North, East or West, where people can obtain a living more easily, cheaper or better than here. Men competent in almost any mechanical pursuit, and farmers with very little capital, can secure a home and good living. Capitalists, in my opinion, could not find a safer place for investment. Both labor and capital are only needed to metamorphose this region to almost a paradise on earth."

Says another, Mr. V. R. Spear, of Massachusetts, now residing in Asheville, N. C.: "With all our natural resources, good climate, kindly feeling of the people toward those who come here with the purpose of becoming permanent citizens, the great abundance of water power, minerals, profusion of timber, productive lands, &c., &c., I cannot but think that northern capital and labor will be productive of good results, and make happy homes for thousands who are seeking homes in the South."

And thus writes another—H. S. Lucas, Esq., formerly of New York, now a resident of Franklin in this State: "The South is limitless in its amount of mineral wealth, its rich lands and healthy climates. The land is cheap; some of the finest I ever saw can be had for ten dollars an acre. * * It offers the finest opportunities for the investment of northern capital, intelligence and industry ever opened in the history of the country."

Many more such testimonials might easily be produced, but these are deemed sufficiently convincing for even the most incredulous. Sectional animosity is simply a pet theme of demagogues, having no foundation in truth. In the hearts of the people of both sections there is a deep-rooted and growing feeling of common brotherhood, whose plenary development is retarded only by crafty and designing men whose political existence is measured by the longevity of sectional discord and strife.

Let those who desire to emigrate South listen to the voice of truth and reason. Let them come and see. We are anxious to receive and welcome them. Verily the harvest is white, but the laborers are few. All we need is the helping hand of the ingenious and sagacious Yankee to make North Carolina the garden spot of the Union. Come!

POLITICAL NOTES.

The New York Sun is now engaged in the grateful task of ridiculing and depreciating Horatio Seymour. That paper pretends that it does not desire Grant to be President, and to prove its sincerity it attempts to belittle the purest and best of New York politicians, present or past.

Bishop Gil Haven, of the Northern Methodist church, is dead. He was elected Bishop in 1872. He was a political person, who hated the South and its people, and was strong for Grant and a third term of Washington.

As against Seymour, Tilden would be a reed shaken by the wind; he could not stand for an instant.—Union Herald (Rep.).

There will be one comfort to the Democrats in Grant's nomination—they can use all their old 1876 denunciations of the rotten practices of Grant's terms; documents whose wide distribution led the Republican party in a popular minority of 150,000.—Springfield Republican (Ind.).

We are decidedly of the opinion that both the Tilden and Tammany factions are making asses of themselves, if Providence and not already frustrated them. They are ruining the party they profess to serve, and all to gratify their own private and petty revenges.—St. Paul Globe (Dem.).

The colored Members of the Virginia General Assembly intend to pass a bill making grave robbery a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary. At present the penalty for this crime is a fine of $500 and imprisonment in jail not exceeding twelve months. The colored people of Richmond particularly are greatly aroused over the robbery of the colored people, and they are determined to use their influence to have the appropriation of the Medical College cut off because the medical resurrectionists have made a distinction on account of color. More than forty names of colored persons have been cited recently in the Richmond cemetery.

Anti Grant Republicans in Indiana are angry because the State Convention has been called to meet so early as the 25th of February, and are pronouncing it a trick in the interest of the third-term candidate. Pennsylvania Republicans are also indignant at Don Cameron's haste to have the State delegation to the Chicago Convention named. The present programme is to call the Convention early in February. There are rumors to the effect that New York delegates are to be selected before Washington's birthday is again celebrated. The Grant men seem to appreciate that delay is dangerous to their candidate's interests.—New York Sun.

Guilty of Wrong.

Some people have a fashion of confusing excellent remedies with large mass of "patent medicines," and in this they are guilty of a wrong. There are some advertised remedies fully worth all that is asked for them, and one at least we know of—Hop Bitters. The writer has had occasion to use the Bitters in just such a climate as we have most of in Bay City, and has always found them to be first-class and reliable, doing all that is claimed for them.—Tribune.

WEST POCKET CURE. 25 DYSPEPSIA 25. CLERGY & DOCTORS TESTE.

Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof. Univ. of N. C. I concur with Bishop Doegert in his estimate of the West Pocket Cure.

Rev. Dr. Jeter, Broadleaf, Dickinson, (S. D.). It is endorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of character, and is a most valuable remedy for dyspepsia. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united voices for the medicinal value and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, removes all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapeutic agent. Editors Religious Herald, Va.

Chaplain Randolph Macon College, Va. Many cases of dyspepsia within my knowledge have been cured by the use of this medicine. It is a most valuable remedy for dyspepsia, and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cure of this sort are innumerable.

Rev. R. L. Dabney, LL. D., Col. Va. It is highly esteemed here by the regular medical faculty and the people. It is excellent for indigestion and flatulent colic, sedative, soporific, tonic, slightly aperient without nausea.

Rev. B. F. Woodward, P. E., N. C. Conf. About twenty years since I suffered from dyspepsia. Failing in this with medicine, I gave it a fair trial. After its use I could eat anything with relish, and I am now in the best of health. I have been a constant user of this medicine for the last sixteen years. I have known many since to be relieved by its use.

Rev. Robert W. Watts, A. M., Va. I have used the mixture in my family for years, and have found it to be a most valuable remedy for dyspepsia, and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cure of this sort are innumerable.

J. D. Eggleston, M. D., Va. It is a most valuable remedy for dyspepsia, and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cure of this sort are innumerable.

Editor Richmond Christian Advocate. This remedy is of tried virtue. I have seen dyspepsia cured completely by it. It seems to be an antidote to our "National Disease." The ingredients are not kept by the apothecaries, and have been difficult to get.

Colonel J. I. Stiles, of Greensboro; Colonel Davidson, of Asheville; Colonel W. T. Dortch, Goldsboro; Colonel Henderson, Salisbury; were in the city yesterday.

The stock of goods belonging to the late firm of John Cheatham is offered for sale at greatly reduced prices during the next thirty days. See advertisement of Mr. E. R. Stamps, assignee.

The attention of delinquent taxpayers is invited to the advertisement of Mr. A. D. Royster, city tax collector, to be found in another column. The time is short and those who wish to avoid trouble had better settle up at their earliest convenience.

Our representative, Hon. J. J. Davis, has introduced a bill in Congress to repeal the law, levying a tax of ten percent on the notes issued by State banks. A step in the right direction. Hope he may succeed in carrying it through.

Messrs. Yeargan, Petty & Co. have a specialty in ladies fine dress shoes and gaiters that they claim to be the "handsomest shoe ever sold in Raleigh." It is said that a pretty shoe is not the least attractive part of a lady's attire.

Messrs. Yeargan, Petty & Co. have been favored with an unusually large sale in carpets during the past season. Their establishment has become widely known for the excellence in this particular line, as is shown by the large patronage they enjoy.

Those who feel the need of a tonic or beverage should give themselves accordingly.

Mr. N. H. Bennett, agent for Messrs. Wm. G. Hill, of Baltimore, has opened a piano and organ warehouse at No. 20 Fayetteville street, opposite the State Bank. Mr. Bennett will remain here a few days to exhibit the merits of these Knabe pianos and to those who desire purchase a really excellent instrument a better opportunity could not occur.

C. M. McGhee, V. P., and the Committee of the Board of Directors of the Eastern States, Virginia and Georgia Railroad Company have been in conference for several days with the Governor, President Wilson, of the N. C. R. R., and his Board of Directors. It is believed that this conference will result in securing an early connection over the Western road with Cincinnati and Louisville via Knoxville, as it has leaked out that arrangements have been made between the Louisville & Nashville and the Knoxville & Ocala railroads for an immediate connection at the State line north of Knoxville.

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anemia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhea, Menorrhagia, Amenorrhea, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, and such like organic or functional disturbances. I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."

W. F. BARR, M. D., Abingdon, Va.

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass."

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhoea, Anemia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Enlargement, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.

GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D., New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for chronic diseases.

G. M. D. PATTERSON, M. D., Eaglewood, Texas.

For Dyspepsia, Ulcerations of the Throat, Inflammation of the Neck of the Bladder, Leucorrhoea, etc., the "Seven Springs Mass" seems to act with almost specific effect.

E. O. GRIFFIN, DeWitt, Ark.

We could extend this list into the thousands with such testimonials from physicians from every State in the Union, but these are sufficient to indicate its application. The reputation of the remedy is too widely known to waste words upon its character. In ordering from druggists always mention Spring Springs Mass. Price $1 per package of six for $5, sent by mail, postpaid.

Unless the breath is like a spicy gale, Unless the teeth gleam like the driven snow, There is no dazzling smile or tender tale.

Grateful to woman's eye or ear, we know, The smile would lose its charms—the smile be gaunt, Till brought within the spell of Sotozopot.

Given Universal Satisfaction.

The following letter from one of our well known druggists will show the estimation in which Mrs. Person's Remedy for Sore Throat and Tonic Bitters is held in this community:

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 30, 1880.

MRS. JOSEPH PERSON, Franklinton, N. C.

MADAM—Please send me 3 dozen more of your Sore Throat Remedy as soon as possible, as I have only one bottle left of the 6 dozen purchased of you before. It gives me pleasure to state that your Remedy has given universal satisfaction to those to whom I have sold it. I know personally of its alternative and curative properties, it merits all you claim for it.

Very respectfully,
W. A. SIMPSON.

The medicine can be obtained in Raleigh from Mr. Simpson, P. H. Heart and Pescud, Lee & Co. Persons desiring testimonials of cures can obtain circulars by application to them or Mrs. Person.

Distance Leads Enchantment!

Maud had a fine figure, good face and pretty name. One should see her at a distance. When she began to talk, she was no longer needed. Sozopolis. Her breath was unlike the breezes of Araby the last.

Kearney's advice to all parties is to "pool their issues."

We think a good deal as he does, that we should bury the dead issues of the past. As a healing compound for all issues, sores, sores, and sores, there is nothing so good as Kearney's Carbolic Salve. Beware of counterfeits.
